great things about your wiki project

We loved listening to, and watching the videos because they were easy to follow.

The images were great and showed us details better than just words.

It was a great idea to have the cartoon stories.

suggestions for improving your wiki project

Make it a little bit easier for a kid our age to understand because there are some very hard words in your information. But everything else is great.

piece of new knowledge that our group has thanks to your wiki

That some people take advantage of places like bebo and they make fun of people there. Like if someone does something embarrassing someone can post it on bebo and then everyone will know.
